

Finding the Alignment Parameters and Axes

- Given a trial structure and at least 5 RDC values, you can solve linear equations (i.e., fit)
- D_a and R can be estimated from a histogram of all measured RDC values
- Determine only the relative angles between pairs of NH (or CH) vectors