

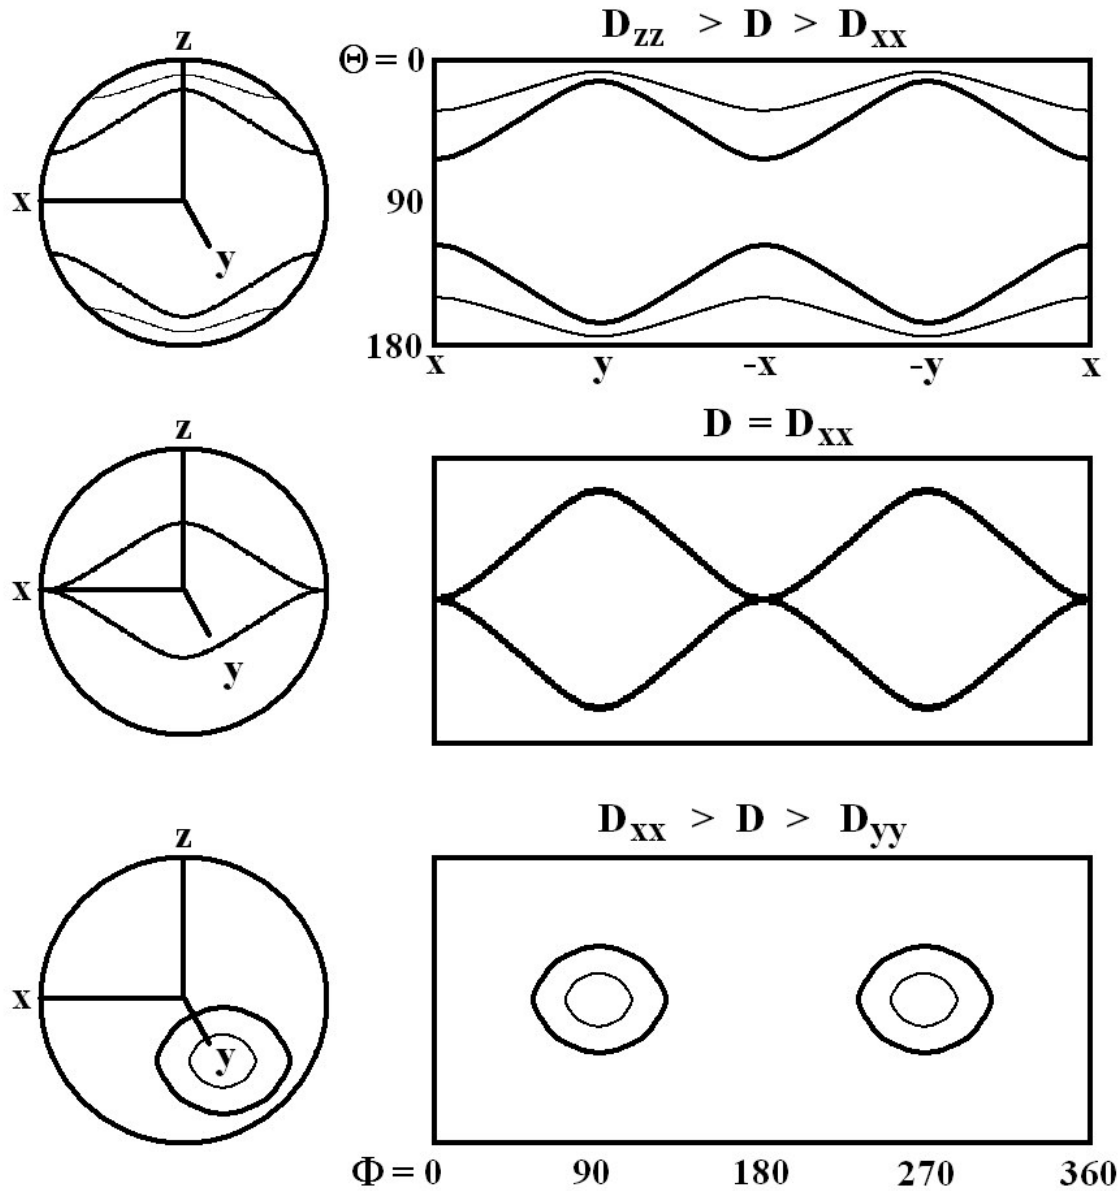

Mapping the N-H Vector in the Alignment Frame

If you know D_a and R you can orient the NH vector

$D = D_{xx}$ gives the largest range of possible orientations, so it should be the most commonly found value of D