

Application Instructions

The application consists of the completed application cover page ^[1], a brief project description and a two-page NSF format CV, with current funding. Additionally, applicants are encouraged to identify a faculty facilitator from the UA-CBC faculty who will answer questions, advise on sample preparation, etc. and serve as a point of contact with the RSS facility. Applicants should feel free to contact the associated RSS director for guidance and discussions of feasibility in the preparation of the application.

Applications will be accepted only in electronic format. The application form can be downloaded | here ^[2] |.

Deadline: Applications will be accepted on a continuing basis beginning August 15, 2012 and will be reviewed as received, contingent upon the availability of funding.

Questions: Queries regarding the program can be directed to cbc-rsop@email.arizona.edu ^[3]. Also, feel free to contact the individual RSS directors.
